

Questions related to Sparta Makes Ready for War

Based on the excerpt, indicate whether each statement is true or false. Re-write the false statements to make them true.

1. Sparta would advance into Attica alone, without troops from any other Greek cities.
2. The army that would invade Attica was especially large.
3. King Archidamus understood that Athens was a very powerful city.
4. At the time, most Greeks hated Sparta and loved Athens.
5. War is predictable, because the side with the larger army wins.
6. It is possible that Athens will come out to meet them in battle.

Short-Answer Question.

7. As the army is preparing to march into Attica, list four concerns of the Spartan king.