

Questions related to “Where Do We Go from Here?”

1. For most of its history, which region of the country had the civil rights movement focused on—the North, the South, the East, or the West?
2. King mentions the “deep rumbling of discontent in our cities.” What had been going on over the last couple years in some major cities?
3. In terms of “where we are now,” what kind of issues is King discussing—political, economic, social, psychological, religious, moral? Pick the main one.
4. As to where black Americans “go from here,” what are the two basic challenges?
5. Write the sentence from King’s address about power, love, and justice.
6. What is the goal of the program that King wants developed?
7. Do you believe this goal makes sense? Yes, no, or maybe—and give a reason.
8. At this late stage of his career, is Martin Luther King still committed to nonviolence?
9. King says the truths of two economic systems need to be combined in order to form a better economic system. Name the two economic systems that need to be merged.