

True/False Questions related to Story of Indian Removal

Based on Burnett's account, indicate whether each statement is true or false.

1. Earlier in Burnett's life, a Cherokee had tried to stab him to death.
2. Burnett was an eyewitness to the Trail of Tears.
3. Many Cherokees died from cold and exposure during the removal.
4. Mrs. Ross, the wife of Cherokee Chief John Ross, barely survived after coming down with pneumonia.
5. Burnett was dishonorably discharged from the army for having struck another soldier with a hatchet.
6. Cherokee lands had been overrun by gold-hungry thieves and murderers prior to the Trail of Tears.
7. Despite everything that happened later, Chief Junaluska never regretted having saved the life of Andrew Jackson.
8. By the late 19th century, public schools throughout the United States taught about the Trail of Tears.
9. According to Burnett, soldiers were ordered to execute an Indian chief and his children.
10. The sick child to whom Mrs. Ross gave her blanket was able to recover.