

True/False Questions related to the Conspiracy to Kill Caesar

Based on the two accounts, indicate whether each statement is true or false. Re-write the false statements to make them true.

1. According to Nicolaus of Damascus, more than eighty people took part in the plot.
2. According to both accounts, Decimus Brutus had a close relationship with Caesar.
3. According to Plutarch but not Nicolaus of Damascus, Marcus Brutus was well thought of by Romans at the time.
4. Plutarch indicates that Marcus Brutus's participation was critical for the conspiracy.
5. Nicolaus of Damascus seems to sympathize with those who assassinated Caesar.
6. Nicolaus of Damascus lists many motives for why Caesar was assassinated.
7. According to Plutarch, Marcus Brutus and Cassius included only close friends in the conspiracy.
8. Nicolaus of Damascus indicates that Caesar treated his political opponents well.
9. According to Plutarch, Marcus Brutus hated Caesar personally.
10. Nicolaus of Damascus contends that while the real motives for killing Caesar were often personal in nature, the plotters pretended to be acting on important principles.